INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SERVICES CELL (ISSC)

SSCON operates an active International Student Service Cell (ISSC) under the supervision of the principal. The ISSC's purpose is to assist undergraduate international students admitted to the institution. The institution's handbook provides detailed information on the admission checklist and visa requirements. As of now, there are no international undergraduate students enrolled in SSSCON.

Roles of ISSC

- To uphold the records and pertinent documentation of international students.
- Organization of reception, transportation, and orientation schedules.
- To cultivate harmonious relations with fellow classmates and senior students, fostering a secure and welcoming environment.
- To aid students in maintaining communication with their parents and relatives.
- To promote understanding and appreciation of Indian culture, local language, lifestyle, cuisine, sociocultural events, and provide insights into the details of nearby villages.
- To provide assistance in opening bank accounts and navigating to the nearest railway stations, airports, or road routes, among other transportation facilities.
- To conduct regular meetings with students to address their needs as they arise.
